

Greetings, Brothers!

Our next Lodge event is just around the corner! Our Lodge Cookout will be at Camp Old Indian on Wednesday, June 27th. The cookout will take place in the Activity Building, and check-in will begin at 5. All attendees should wear their full Class A uniform with sash.

Atta Kulla Kulla Lodge's annual Vigil Callout will immediately follow the Lodge Cookout in the amphitheater. This is a great opportunity to recognize and show your support for your fellow Brothers who have given back to our Lodge as they receive this great honor.

Just as a reminder to everyone, we will NOT be accepting walk-ups this year. This means you will have to register and pay before or have an all access pass.

Also, we are looking for community volunteers to help during ceremonies and Elangomats over the course of the summer. Elangomat is the Lenni Lenape word meaning friend. As an Elangomat you'll be responsible for candidates whom you'll work with during their Ordeal. Elangomats will help set up for or attend Ordeal or Brotherhood ceremonies. The cost is $5 per day at camp.

As always if there is anything we can do to help please reach out to us you can reach all of us at our emails on the lodge website AKK185.org. You will find links below for the Lodge Cookout, Elangomat program, and Brotherhood Registration.
