Week of Wildwater Adventure

Day 1, Pigeon River Rafting/Zipline

The Pigeon is a Class III + whitewater rafting trip with plenty of big waves. After lunch, we will embark on Wildwater's most adventure packed Canopy Tour. Cross the Pigeon River twice and enjoy the forest from our Cliff Hanger platform.

Day 2, Nantahala Kayaking/Zipline

The Nantahala offers both fun and beauty as we paddle inflatable kayaks down the Class II - III Nantahala River and soar through a deciduous rain forest atop the Nantahala Gorge.

Day 3 - 4, Chattooga River Overnighter

The Chattooga River Overnighter is the premier overnight river trip in the Southeast. The trip begins on Section III of the Chattooga and rafts 5 - 7 miles of Class III - IV whitewater. After camping along the Chattooga that evening, the adventure continues on the Class IV + Section IV of the Chattooga River.

Price: $625/ Scout/guest

FAQs

- All lodging, transportation and food provided by Wildwater.
- Need to bring tent, sleeping pad and sleeping bag.

Whitewater 2-Day

Day 1, Canoeing

Join us for a canoeing adventure on one of the Southeast's whitewater jewels, The Chattooga River. We begin the day with basic canoe instructions, then embark on a 2 to 8 mile stretch of river* (section dependent on water level).

*Canoeing location may change to Tuckaseegee River or Lake Fontana based upon weather conditions and water level.

Day 2, Rafting

We will wake up and go rafting on the Nantahala River in Bryson City, NC. The Nantahala is a Class III river in Western North Carolina that flows through a deciduous rain forest.
