How to Sell the Camp Cards

The job of the Camp Cardmaster is simple, to teach your Scouts how to sell. To make the most of your sales opportunities, your unit needs to employ the three sales methods. Create a plan and train your Scouts in all three methods; this will give you the best results.

Door-to-Door:

Take your Cards and sales envelope for a trip around the neighborhood. Highlight the great coupons and that the cards will save them money! Encourage them to buy more than one card because the Break off Coupons can only be used one time and more than pay for the card. Let everyone know you are trying to earn your way to camp.

Store Front Sells:

Set up a sales booth and sell Camp Cards on the spot. This can be an effective approach in the right location at the right time. Focus on multiple locations over the course of the sale. It is important to always ask permission from the store manager prior to setting up in front of a store. Many businesses including Dick's Sporting Goods have policies that prohibit store front sales (DO NOT CONTACT DICK'S SPORTING GOODS as this could jeopardize our current relationship). Also, it is important to check with your district as many have district signup sheets for store fronts that must be signed up for at the district. Locations to consider include Walmart, Lowe's, Sam's, Tractor Supply, Grocery Stores etc. Again, make sure you have permission prior to setting up in front of any stores.

Sell at Work:

A great way for mom and dad to help their Scout is to sell at work. Mom and Dad are encouraged to take Camp Cards to work and ask co-workers to purchase the cards. Remember, you are actually saving people money and who doesn't want to save money?

Safety and Courtesy

Be sure to review these safety and courtesy tips with your Scouts and parents.

- Always sell with another Scout or with an adult – NEVER alone.
- Never enter someone's home.
- Never sell after dark, unless you are with an adult.
- Don't carry large amounts of cash.
- Always walk on the sidewalk and driveways – stay off the grass.
- Be careful of dogs while selling.
- Say THANK YOU even if they don't buy a card.

We are Selling CAMP not just Camp Cards

Ensure your Scout families understand that they are selling character, they are selling a better community, and they are selling all the benefits of Scouting and the camping activities; NOT just a Camp Card. Emphasize that every card sold helps a Scout go to camp. The reason our sale will be a success is that people want to support Scouting as much as they want to buy a camp card.

For more information on the Camp Card Sale, contact your District Executive or contact the Blue Ridge Council office: 864-233-8363

Your Unit Kickoff – How to excite your Scouts!

The objectives of your Camp Card Kickoff are simple:

- Get Scouts excited about camping and how they can earn their way to camp!
- Get parents informed about why their son should have a camp experience.

How can the Camp Cardmaster ensure a successful kickoff?

- Make sure the Kickoff is properly promoted through email, leaders, flyer and phone.
- Review the presentation with your unit leaders prior to the kickoff. Plan who is to do what and determine how the unit will use commission.
- Be prepared to talk about camping opportunities.
- Have snacks, drinks, maybe some music and make it FUN!
- Make sure EVERY Scout gets a Sales Envelope and 10 Camp Cards to sell.
- Have a Unit and Scout Goal!
- Have a Unit Level incentive/prize – Packs – a Bike or Gift Card; Troops – Camp Scholarship or Gift Cards – 1 chance for every 5 or 10 cards sold-everyone has a chance.
- Keep it short – Make it FUN!

Camp Card Kickoff Agenda

1. Grand Opening with music, cheers and excitement – Give me a “C”, Give me a “A” etc.
2. Review with Parents and Scouts the camping opportunities within your unit.
3. Review the Unit Sales Goal and explain “key” dates.
 - a. Provide Money Turn-In weekly
 - b. Provide additional card checkout weekly
 - c. Provide Store Front Dates (key to increase sales)
4. Scout Training on how to sell the camp cards: “do’s and don’ts”
5. Prizes: Review any Unit Prizes and Grand Prize opportunities.
6. Finish BIG: issue a challenge to your Scouts and send everyone home motivated to sell.
7. Check out a Sales Envelope to every Scout with 5 to 10 Cards prior to leaving the kickoff meeting.
8. Thank your Scouts and Parents!

Sales Techniques for Scouts

Don't miss the opportunity to use the Camp Card sale to train your Scouts in public speaking, sales and service. Your Scouts and parents will appreciate the effort and your sales will improve. Camp Card sales may also qualify for some requirements towards the Salesmanship Merit Badge and other advancement opportunities.

- Have Scouts role play and practice during the kickoff.
- Find a way to make training fun and reward Scouts who do a good job.

Have your Scouts practice these simple steps:

- Wear your Uniform.
- Smile and say- "Hello, my name is _____. I'm a Scout with (Pack/Troop /Crew) _____ .
- Tell them what you are doing – I'm trying to raise money so that I can attend summer camp this summer.
- Tell them what they can do to help – I'm selling Camp Cards that will not only help me go to summer camp but will help you save money as well.
- Point out a couple of the valuable coupons.
- Close the sale and say Thank you!

Other Tips for Selling Cards

Do the following:

- Sell 15 to your Family
- Sell 15 to Friends and Neighbors
- Have mom and dad each sell 10 at work
